

devotion_my identity

*Love came down
And rescued me and gave to me my true identity.
For without you I am lost, I don't know who I am.
But in Christ I am home and I belong,
I can sing my true song.
My life is found in you, my strength too.
Your child I am with a present Dad.
No longer alone I stand,
But you walk with me hand in hand.*

My identity is not in what I do or what I have. It is not even in my earthly family lineage, but in Christ. I am His and He is mine. I am His child and He is my Father and He lives in me and is always with me.

Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence? If I ascend to heaven, you are there! If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there! If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me. Psalm 139:7-10

Our God is jealous over us. He wants all of us. If you are struggling or feeling lost today, turn to Him. Turn to Jesus. He will never leave or abandon you. He is always with you and promises to lead you and hold you. He is a good Father and a faithful Friend. You can trust Him.

Think on this

Where do I get my sense of identity? Is it from what I do or the clothes I wear? Do I know who and whose I am?

Prayer

Father, thank you for sending Your Son to die FOR ME. Thank you Jesus for looking down through history and seeing me, lost and alone, and going to the cross to bring me home. I love you and am so grateful you saved my life. Help me to live for You alone. May Your kingdom come and Your will be done in my life, in Jesus' name. Amen.
